

Support to the 9th Islamic Economics Workshop from Albaraka

Albaraka Türk, Turkey's first participation bank, supported the 9th Islamic Economics Workshop. The 9th Islamic Economics Workshop titled “The Problem of Development and Underdevelopment” will be held on September 17-19 at the Conference Hall of Istanbul Commerce University, Sütlüce Campus.

Continuing its goal of being the best participation bank in the world, Albaraka Türk supports the Islamic Economics Workshop, organized by the Islamic Economics Research Center (IKAM) and held for the ninth time this year. The 9th Islamic Economics Workshop titled “The Problem of Development and Underdevelopment” will be held at Istanbul Commerce University, Sütlüce Campus Conference Hall between September 17-19. In the opening program, the 4th Islamic Economics Awards will also find their owners. The awards given by IKAM to encourage and support Islamic economics studies find their winners in different branches, taking into account the contribution provided for this field, original ideas, practical solutions and applications, and qualified graduate studies.

During the workshop where the pain point of "Development and Underdevelopment" will be discussed; experienced academics from the discipline of economics will come together in order to examine the problems on this subject and to propose applicable solutions in the context of Islamic economics. In the workshop, where different perspectives will be presented, it is aimed existing studies to be critically evaluated and concrete suggestions to be made.

The Workshop, held on a different subject each year by the Islamic Economics Research Center, is being carried out with the participation of academicians working in the field of Islamic Economics from many countries such as Turkey, Egypt, England, Pakistan, USA, Qatar, Algeria, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Indonesia, Italy, Bangladesh and Canada. While these workshops are instrumental in sharing and discussing different studies, at the end of each workshop, the determinations and suggestions from the communiqués and discussions are announced to the public with a final declaration.
