

ALBARAKA TÜRK IS ON THE LIST OF "BEST EMPLOYERS IN EUROPE"

Turkey's first participation bank, Albaraka Türk, broke new ground by entering the list of "Europe's Best Employers" organized by the Great Place to Work Institute, one of the world's most prestigious organizations in the field of human resources.

Albaraka Türk, Turkey's first participation bank, was included in the "Europe's Best Employers" list jointly organized by the Great Place to Work Institute and the Economist Magazine. Behind this success of Albaraka Türk, which is listed in the category of 500 or more employees, lies its corporate culture and employee satisfaction, as well as the innovative projects and practices it has implemented, and the opportunities it provides to its employees.

Albaraka Türk Deputy General Manager Süleyman Çelik stated that their priority as an institution is always to value people and employees, and added that; "Being an institution, we always support and value our employees. Our top priority and the biggest feature that puts us forward are human values. We know that the greatest power behind success is the trust and loyalty of employees to our Bank. With this belief, we always consider the wishes and needs of our employees and pay attention to their working conditions. Today, we are also extremely happy to be included in the list of "Europe's Best Employers". The biggest share in this success belongs to our employees. We believe that with our corporate culture, we will go great guns and achieve much better works all together."
